

Rules Of “The Youth Forum for Peace”.

1. Participants will represent the country allocated by the host institute and there won't be any changes in the portfolio.
2. The Forum will be of one and a half days and will involve opening and closing statements, discussions, speeches and negotiations in the Mod Caucuses.
3. Participants must work towards a joint communique or a resolution providing solutions to the topics, in accordance with the United Nations Charter.
4. Participants must be dressed appropriately in formals and must carry their college identity card.
5. Participants will put forward their views in accordance with the foreign policy of the country allocated.
6. Participants are to address themselves as “We” or “Name of Country allocated” e.g. “India” and not “I”.
7. Use of foul language may lead to disqualification and won't be tolerated in any form.
8. English is the preferred language throughout the forum discussions.
9. Participants must avoid hurting religious, political, public, racial sentiments by avoiding sensitive societal issues.
10. Participants must be factually current and refer trusted and reliable sources for their research.
11. The discussion would revolve around the United Nations Charter, global treaties and the international law.
12. Rules and Regulations are subject to further changes and will be communicated in time.

Topic of discussions: “Talk peace: Global Wars and their fallout”. In line with the verve theme “Global Melange: Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam”

1. Entry fee 300/- per individual.
2. Winner prize money 4000/-
3. Runner up prize money 2000/-